

Planning Enforcement

Privacy Notice (How we use your information)

The categories of information that we collect, process, hold and share include:

- personal information (such as name, address, contact details)

Why we collect and use this information

We use your data to:

- enable us to carry out specific functions for which we are responsible
- take any necessary enforcement action

The lawful basis on which we use this information

We collect and use this information for the purposes of carrying out our functions under the Town and Country Planning Act 1990

Collecting this information

Whilst the majority of the information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the data protection legislation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing this information

We hold your data for 11 years

For cases resulting in a Notice being served, for as long as we are required to hold the Register of Enforcement and other Notices.

Who we share this information with

We routinely share information with:

- Legal services
- Any Court as required by the action taken after service of a notice

Why we share this information

We share data with Legal Services and the Courts under The Town and Country Planning Act 1990. This data sharing enables enforcement proceedings to be carried out in the public interest.

Public Register

The Council is required to keep a public register which records details of certain authorisations it issues. This register may contain personal data.

To view the Council's register please go to www.tmbc.gov.uk .

Data collection requirements

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Government go to www.gov.uk .

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information please contact Adrian Stanfield, the Council's Data Protection Officer at foi@tmbc.gov.uk.

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

Further information

If you would like further information about this privacy notice, please contact Adrian Stanfield, the Council's Data Protection Officer at foi@tmbc.gov.uk.

The Council collects and uses personal information for a number of purposes across all of its departments and functions. To find out more about how the Council uses the personal information it collects, please refer to the Corporate Privacy Notice <https://www.tmbc.gov.uk/privacy-notice>.